

THE FLOURISH MOVEMENT

Research Results

Program Understanding the world of School Principals and helping them
Purpose Flourish professionally, physically and mentally.

The principals have completely transformed the way they work and where they spend their time.

They are more efficient.

17% reduction in time required to complete admin and compliance

They are more focused.

27% decrease in the number of overall interruptions they experience

43% decrease in interruptions from emails

29% reduction in interruptions from phone

10% reduction in multi-tasking

As a result they are getting to the things that make the school better and get better student outcomes.

27% increase in the amount of time spent on people development

75% increase in the amount of time spent coaching their staff

59% increase in time spent on strategy

29% increase in the amount of time spent on doing research

THE FLOURISH MOVEMENT

Research Results

They are spending more quality time with their family.

22% increase in work-life balance

70% increase in boundary strength (not letting work affect family)

Belief that “My personal time is my own” increased by 47%

They are looking after themselves more.

Recovery behaviours (things that help them be more refreshed and less stressed) increased by 24% at work and by 16% outside of work

Best of all they are a better version of themselves which means a happier and more functional school.

Pressure felt at work reduced by 18%

How much they enjoy their job improved by 11%

Energy levels by the end of the day increased by 16%

Stress levels declined by 20%

Much more content with their life their rating of “My life is ideal” increased by 15%

Hope for the future increased by 11%

Optimistic mindset increase by 9%

Resilience increased by 11%

Their level of positivity at work increase by 56%

Finally they perceived that the culture of the school had improved.

13% increase in how supportive they felt the culture of their school was

